EXPERT SANITARY ENGINEER IS ENGAGED TO COME TO DAYTONA TO STUDY THE SEWER QUESTION

WILL STUDY CONDITIONS, RECOMMEND BEST SYSTEM AND APPROPRIATE COST

ACTION TAKEN AT COUNCIL SESSION OF CITY COMMISSION, ATTENDED BY COMMISSIONER FROM BOARD OF TRADE.

Expert advice of this kind, they say, is essential to any sanitary engineer, but they also say that the city of Daytona is the only one in the state to have engaged an expert to study the sewer question. The engineer has been asked to make a complete survey of the sewerage system, to determine the best system to adopt, and to estimate the cost of the same. EXPERT SANITARY ENGINEER IS ENGAGED TO COME TO DAYTONA TO STUDY THE SEWER QUESTION

WILL STUDY CONDITIONS, RECOMMEND BEST SYSTEM AND APPROXIMATE COST

ACTION TAKEN AT CALLED SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL ATTENDED BY COMMITTEE FROM BOARD OF TRADE.

Clyde Potts of New York City, an expert sanitary engineer, has been engaged by the city of Daytona at an expense of $300 to investigate sanitary conditions in Daytona, recommend the best possible system of sewerage to adopt here and give the approximate cost of installing such a system. The engineer has been asked to come to Daytona at once to have this preliminary step toward the adoption of an adequate system completed as soon as possible.

This is the result of action taken at a special session of the Daytona city council held Monday afternoon, at which were present Messrs. Geo. H. Clark, C. M. Bingham and F. M. Rowe, who had been appointed as a committee from the board of trade by President L. M. Waite to confer with the council on this subject.

At the last meeting of the city council City Clerk Porter had been instructed to write several expert sanitary engineers and replies had been received. At the meeting Monday the city clerk was instructed to telegraph Mr. Potts his proposition had been accepted and ask him to come here at once.

This is the first really definite step toward the adoption of a complete sewerage system in Daytona and it is probable the movement to vote for a bond issue will now be carried forward until the people are given an opportunity to vote on the question of issuing bonds sufficient to cover the expense of installing a system of sewers and installing other needed improvements.

At the special session of the council a committee, consisting of Aldermen Hall, Conrad and Smith, was appointed to confer with the board of trade committee on the matter of paying and widening Beach street, and it is expected this committee will be ready to report at the next regular meeting of the council.

The city council met again in adjourned session Monday night to revise the tax list.

PRESIDENT FAVORS BUDGET SYSTEM OF APPROPRIATIONS

GIVES HIS IDEAS ON THIS SUBJECT IN LETTER WRITTEN TO SENATOR TILLMAN BEFORE INAUGURATION.

WASHINGTON, March 18 — In a letter written by President Wilson before the inauguration, and made public today, to Senator Tillman, Wilson declares he is in favor of a "budget" system of government appropriations.

"This business of building up the expenses of the government piece by piece," says the letter, "will certainly lead us into error and possibly into great embarrassment."

ALLEGED BANK FUNDS WERE USED TO BACK A COMPANY

BACK OF INDICTMENTS IS SAID TO BE AMAZING STORY OF HIGH FINANCE AND RECKLESS USE OF FUNDS.

CINCINNATI, March 18 — George (Boss) Cox, former president of the Cincinnati Trust company, two other former officers and eight members of the board of directors were named in sealed indictments returned today by the county grand jury.

Cox and the other officials are charged with the "abstraction of a note for $350,000 from the Cincinnati Trust company, misapplication of funds and making alleged false statements concerning the assets of the company."

Back of the indictments is an amazing story of high finance and reckless use of the bank's funds in financing a furniture company, of which Cox was president. It is said the creditors of the trust company will receive but ten cents on the dollar.

OIL MAGNATE LEAVES FOR HIS ESTATE IN NEW YORK

DECLARES HE HAS HAD SPLENDID TIME HERE AND PROPOSES TO RETURN EVERY WINTER IN THE FUTURE.

John D. Rockefeller, wizard of oil and the wealthiest man in the world, left Daytona at an early hour this morning for his estate at "Pocantico Hills," at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, after spending four weeks at the Hotel Clarendon. At his leave taking the oil magnate declared it was the most delightful winter season he had ever spent anywhere and he proposed to return here again next year, if possible, and every winter in the future when he can possibly arrange to do so.

Mr. Rockefeller was delighted with Daytona and its surroundings and delighted with his accommodations at the Clarendon. The weather has been delightful during the greater part of his stay here and he has had splendid opportunity for motoring and playing golf, the two recreations at which he spends most of his time.

The oil magnate and party left Daytona in the special Pullman car, Harista, which was brought here Monday and left on a siding and occupied by the Rockefeller party in the early part of the evening. The car was picked up by train No. 38 at an early hour in the morning and taken to Jacksonville, where it was transferred to an Atlantic Coast Line train bound for New York.

The big Rockefeller automobile was driven through from here to Jacksonville by the chauffeur and shipped by freight to New York, consigned to another name than John D. Rockefeller. This precaution was taken to prevent the stealing of parts off the machine, a thing which happened when the car was shipped from New York to Daytona before the oil magnate came here. Several important parts of the big car were missing when it reached Daytona.

Mr. Rockefeller was in Daytona four weeks. His income, according to the best estimates obtainable, during that time amounted to something like $3,840,000. Assuming that his expenses during his stay here amounted to $100 per day, which is considered high, he still had something like $3,837,200 from his income above his expenses during the time he remained in Daytona.

In spite of the fact that Mr. Rockefeller had a delightful time here, he was subjected to some inconveniences. The last three successive days of his stay here the special express shipment of milk from Baltimore, N. C., consigned to Mr. Rockefeller for his personal use, was carried by Daytona and taken to Miami, being returned the following day, soured, and with two bottles missing each time. This happened a number of times during the oil magnate's stay here.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. JONES
Food Specialist

GOAT IMMUNE TO CANCER.

Dr. Dixon, commissioner of health of the state of Pennsylvania, has found that cancer cells from the rat may be grown in blood plasma of other animals and continue to grow
when implanted again in a rat,
but that these cells will not grow in the blood of the goat.
This supports the contention in these hints that the goat is the healthiest of all animals, free from tuberculosis and cancer because of the simple diet upon which it has been compelled to live for many generations. Excessive variety in food predisposes to disease, an important physiological truth which,
though new, is gradually being confirmed by investigation and experience, and a truth of vast practical import.

Longevity in French Villages.

A remarkable record of longevity is to be found in some of the rural parishes of France. In the village of St.
Thomas de la Fliche there have been only fourteen parish priests in three hundred years, the fourteenth being still in possession. The parish of St.
Germain du Val, in Paris, has had only three pastors in one hundred years, while that of Givry en Argonne has had but five in 130 years.

THE DAILY NEWS—15 Cents a Week

All in Equal Position.
Anybody can get a steady living out of steady effort. The same clock that ticks off twenty hours for one man can't cheat his neighbor. The same laws of right and wrong, the same privilege to do and dare, are open to both.—Herbert Kaufman.

Morality Without Religion.
Morality without religion is only a kind of dead reckoning—an endeavor to find our place on a cloudy sea by measuring the distance we have run, but without any observation of the heavenly bodies.—Longfellow.

China's Long Waterway.
China has the longest canal in the world—the Grand. It is the longest certified waterway, and goes from Tungtsu to Hangchow, a distance of 600 miles.

The Value of Trying.
If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them? That it was a vain endeavor?—Thoreau.

And There They Stop.
"The city fathers provide soap water for the slums, in the form of excellent schools, kindergartens, and branch libraries. And there they stop, at the curbstone of the people's life. They cleanse and discipline
the children's minds, but their hands
they pitch into the gutter."—W. A.
Antin.

Limit of Quackery.
A story is told of a woman whose lover had an unconquerable antipathy
to red hair, so she applied to a quack to have the color altered. He replied that this was his wife's department,
and that she would furnish the help
with a leaden comb and the anti-her-easian unguent which "after two or three applications will make you as fair or as dark as you please."

Doing Good by the Way.
I expect to pass through this life but once. If, therefore, there is any kindness I can show, or any good I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now, let me not defer or neglect
it, for I shall not pass this way again.
—Mrs. A. B. Hegeman.

HOTEL INDIAN RIVER.
ROCKLEDGE, Fla., March 18.—All of Rockledge and Cocoa are greatly interested in the motor boat races which began here today and continue through tomorrow and Thursday, and that such interest is not confined to people here is evidenced by the numerous reservations made from both north and south and advices received of people coming for the event. Preparations are in order for the entertainment and care of all that may come, no matter how many, and the Hotels Indian River and Rockledge are uniting with the yacht club and cottagers to the end that the boat owners and their friends and others interested in the races, will be pleasantly entertained and taken care of.
Charles P. Hopkins, Jr. is in charge of the races, also officially represents the American Power Boat association, and he has secured the participation of many of the fastest boats. Those of the owners who are now on the course are loud in their praises of the unusually attractive and fast course, which is laid out in such a way that anyone, no matter from what position they may stand, can get a complete view of the entire course and movements of all boats participating. The river at this point is a mile and a half wide and for 50 miles, both up and down, straight as an arrow, with absolutely no obstructions above or below the water to compel or cause any detour or irregular lines of travel.

Tomorrow night a ball and reception will be tendered the visiting boatmen and their friends and others interested in the races at the Hotel Indian River and on the evening of the 20th a farewell reception, entertainment and dance will be given at the Yacht club and all are looking forward with much pleasure to both events.

The tide of travel has set in northward and the numerous people stopping off at this delightful place on their way back from the south are unanimous in their praise and enjoyment of the cool breezes, beautiful scenery and delightful river view.
while the numerous orange groves,
strawberry farms and truck gardens
are always a source of much interest to strangers. The Hotel Indian River is still entertaining an unusually large number of guests, who are enjoying themselves in fishing, tennis, golf, boating and various other outdoor amusements.

Among the recent arrivals are the following: Mr. and Mrs. M. Hill, New York City; J. M. Nolan and family,
St. Paul, Minn.; J. M. Isola and wife,
Mt. Sterling, Ky; Victor Drabner, Cincinnati; Eugene Leverone, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Allis, Norwich, Conn.; A. O. Morris and wife, Knightstown, Ind.; Mrs. Peter

Candor and Manners.
Pitt was once canvassing for himself, when he came to a blacksmith's shop. "Sir," said he to the blacksmith, "will you favor me with your vote?" "Mr. Pitt," said the son of Vulcan, "I admire your head, but hang your heart." "Mr. Blacksmith," said Pitt, "I admire your candor, but hang your manners."

Divided Nest.
A North Westmorland (England)
farmer recently came across a very unusual sight. In the course of his rounds through his fields he found a nest with 25 eggs in it. The large number was not the only marvel, for
on examining the eggs, he found that 15 of them belonged to a pheasant,
and the remaining ten to a partridge.
The pheasant, as the stronger bird,
was the probable intruder.

Flareback.
"Had your diamonds stolen lately?"
inquired the cub reporter. "Engaged to any dukes?" "Kindly omit banalities," responded the stage favorite.
"Actresses don't talk that kind of stuff
nowadays. If I am to be interviewed, I shall discuss ethical questions only."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Formation of Diamonds.
Vol Bolton thinks that diamonds were formed in nature by the action of metal vapors, such as iron or magnesium, on carbon dioxide. He has succeeded in making microscopic diamonds by the action of mercury vapor
on carbon.

My Duty.
There is an idea abroad among moral people that they should make their neighbors good. One person I have to make good: Myself. But my duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by saying that I have to make him happy—if I may.— Robert Louis Stevenson.

NEED OF NEW CONSTITUTION IS EXPLAINED

PRESENT DOCUMENT IS TOO MUCH PATCHED TO ENDURE

SECRETARY OF THE LEAGUE AN-ALYZES THE SITUATION AND
MANY CHANGES.

Work for a new constitution in Florida has progressed to such a point that it begins to look as though the legislature will agree to submit the question to the people for a vote this fall. Secretary J. E. Worthington, of the league, is quite optimistic. He is, however, searching for any unfavorable sentiment so that the persons may be seen and the need of a new constitution thoroughly explained to them. He is relying much upon the aid of the newspapers and is frank in giving credit to the press for much of the work done. He says in an official statement:

"If the legislature puts the matter of a constitutional convention up to the people, it will be due, largely to the newspapers. Since I wrote you some time ago, urging you to take editorial notice of the movement for a new constitution the press of the state, as you have noticed, has taken up the cudgels for a constitutional convention. Recognition that the present document is antiquated and should be replaced by something up-to-date as befits an up-to-date state, has been so general that we might almost as well call it unanimous. The sentiment for a new constitution existed. It was only necessary for the newspapers to call attention to the need.

"So it is that I want to offer the newspapers of the state the thanks of the New Constitution League for the good work they have done. Their services in making the matter one of every day discussion has crystallized sentiment for a new constitution and I firmly believe the legislature will submit the matter to the people.

"Florida will not be taking a radical step if she goes ahead. It is public sentiment brought about by the newspapers of the state, that has made things done."

"The present constitution was adopted by the people in 1885. If the proposition to revise it is voted upon favorably by the people in 1914, the legislature that assembles in 1915 will provide for a convention to revise the constitution, said convention to meet within six months after the passage of the law creating it. This convention, then, cannot be held before the latter part of 1915. Thus 30 years or more will have passed since the adoption of the present constitution and the formation of a new one.

"The constitution under which we live has been amended 23 times and 16 propositions for amendment have been voted down by the people. These 39 efforts to amend the constitution have cost, according to the secretary of state, $55,193. The convention of 1885 only cost $34,819.

"Last fall the people amended the constitution to provide an additional circuit judge for the county of Duval. At one election some years ago they voted down a similar proposition for the relief of Escambia county. Later they adopted it, at the same time, adopting another amendment which permitted an increase in the number of judicial circuits, as a result of which Escambia county now has more of this relief than it desired.

"One objection to the present constitution is that it contains so much legislative matter, and enters so much into minor details of government. This was made necessary, perhaps, by peculiar conditions existing when it was framed but which are no longer to be feared.

"In 1885 Florida had 358,406 people; in 1910 its population was 732,619. Today it probably has 850,000 people. Thousands of these people came here from other states or are of a new generation and had no hand in the formation of our organic laws. With the progress of events great changes have taken place in the public mind upon governmental affairs.

"This organization does not intend to push any particular ideas for amendments, preferring to leave the writing of the new constitution in the hands of the constitutional convention, so wisely provided for by our forefathers. These problems of municipal government alone are, however, worthy the attention of the convention. When the present constitution was framed there was not a city in Florida with as many as 10,000 people. Today there are several comparatively large cities bringing with their growth perplexing questions of municipal government not touched upon at all in the present constitution.

"We believe the people of Florida desire an opportunity of creating a new constitution; and we know at least that the representatives of the people in the legislature should give them an opportunity to speak on this matter. We want all who are of this mind to make their wishes known and to aid us in this movement. Committees will be appointed in every county to the end that an easy method may be adopted whereby the people may make known their desires. We solicit correspondence from any who are interested in this cause."

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY TENDERED MRS. KEECH.

A birthday surprise party was tendered Mrs. L. C. Keech Thursday night of last week at her home on First avenue by the members of the Loyal Temperance Legion. There were 17 children present and they enjoyed games, recitations and music, after which dainty refreshments were served, consisting of cakes, cookies, lemonade and a beautiful birthday cake, strewn with flowers. Mrs. Keech was also the recipient of many beautiful birthday gifts which she most highly appreciated. The party was greatly enjoyed by both children and hostess. +++

Apt Misquotation.

The minister was attempting to carve a very tough fowl at the dinner. As he was trying to separate one of the joints it slid out of the dish to the other side of the table. He calmly picked it up and gravely said: "What God hath joined together let no man put asunder."—Ladies' Home Journal.

INTERESTING TRIP AND DRIVES POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent bathing north for 10 miles and south 25 miles to Mosquito Inlet and the Government lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—a large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—3 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Osear bus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 3 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona; the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John R. Sweson university; a very picturesque city; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—a Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

Reached on shore by motor, reached by motor over hard surfaced road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 16 miles west of New Smyrna; several groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—25 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of earth, supposed to have been built by a prehistoric race of people. Relics and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard-surfaced road; or the trip can be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—3 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you; there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

The oatmeal cure in diabetes

CHEETAH HUNT IN INDIA
Sport Was Once Very Popular With English Residents—Is Not Rare Beast.

The cheetah hunt which the vic-
roy witnessed recently at Hyderabad reminds one that cheetah hunting was an extremely popular sport with Indian princes in former days, although the initiation of European forms of sport has done much in these times
to rob it of ancient vogue.
It was practiced both by Hindu and Mohammedan chieftains over the greater part of India, for the cheetah even now is not a rare beast, and a century or so ago must have been common enough.
Another animal used in the same way by Indian nobles was a sort of lynx, spelled variously as "shoe-goose," "syahgush." But this was used much more rarely than the chee-tah. However, it was not only Indians who indulged in this form of sport.
It was enjoyed and practiced by Europeans as well in the days when they were content to abide in India for fifteen years at a stretch and when they lived a l'Indienne in a way unknown to modern times. More than one of the Company's nabobs kept their own cheetahs, which were frequently presents from friendly chiefs.
It may easily be imagined that chee-tah hunting was very good sport and welcomed by the servants of the Company as an excellent substitute for the coursing which was familiar to them in England and which, like the cheetah hunt, has vanished before the spread of games such as tennis and golf.—Madras Mail.

Chin Vegetal.
Vegetable fibre, or chin vegetal, is made from leaves of a dwarf palm (Chamaerops humilis), which clings to the soil tenaciously. Its presence was a serious obstacle to the pioneers of Algerian colonization, and it had to be fought foot by foot. It was not then known that the plant would become a source of wealth to the colony and that it would be more and more sought as a commercial product.

COLONEL E. P. WOODBURY
NOW OWNS VAN NESS HOUSE FAMOUS HOSTELRY SOLD BY
EX-GOVERNOR U. A. WOODBURY TO HIS SON WHO WILL TAKE POSSESSION JUNE 1.

Friends in this city of Col. E. P.
Woodbury will congratulate him on his accession to the ownership of the famous Van Ness house at Burlington, V., which has been transferred to him by his father, ex-Governor U. A. Woodbury, who has owned it since 1881. Col. Woodbury, who is manager of the Ridgewood hotel of this city has acted as manager of the Van Ness house for several years. He will take possession June 1.

The Van Ness house was first opened October 25, 1870. On April 7, 1881, the premises were purchased by U. A. Woodbury, and the house was enlarged in 1882 and 1892, with many other changes since then, which have kept the house in the front rank of Vermont hostleries.

The Burlington Free Press and Times of March 14, in noting the transfer of the property says editorially, in part:

"One of the features of the announcement of the transaction makes it worthy of comment as well as of commendation, and this is that there will be no bar connected with the house, although in the future as in the past few years guests will probably be supplied under a license.

"It is a well known fact that during the ten years that have transpired since the adoption of the local option law in 1902, Governor Woodbury has persistently refused to have a bar in the Van Ness house
and thus has deliberately put away probably $50,000 to say nothing of interest. He has done this because he did not believe in a public bar with all for which it stands, and people will honor him for the stand he has thus taken. It affords a lesson which is not likely to be lost upon the public, and especially our young men.

"Col. Edward P. Woodbury, the now proprietor of the Van Ness house, is a young man who has shown himself to be a thoroughly successful hotel man, a qualification which has so recommended him to men in the business that he has received splendid offers to go to larger cities in that capacity. He is deservedly popular with the traveling public as well as with the people of our own community."

THE SARACINA BAND FUND

That L. H. Field of Jackson, Mich., who is a regular winter resident of this vicinity, believes in boosting for Daytona and giving the residents and winter visitors the best obtainable in the way of entertainment during the winter months, is shown by suggestions contained in a letter to F. M.
Rowe, containing a check for $50, half of which is to go toward the Saracina band fund and half toward a first class chautauqua for next season.

Mr. Field's letter is as follows:
"I am quite desirous that there shall be a good chautauqua here next season and I think the conditions are good here for maintaining a good one. I would think an early effort should be made toward something of a guarantee fund and also the selling of season tickets. It would probably be better to sell the tickets when people are here next season. I am enclosing my check for $50, one-half of which is to go toward helping forward the above, and the remainder toward helping to pay for the band for this season."

In reply to this letter Mr. Rowe, a member of the band committee of the board of trade, replied as follows
"I am in receipt of your letter with check enclosed for $50, and note the very good ideas you advance
I take it you wish me to retain $25 of the amount to be supplied on a chautauqua fund, and this I shall do unless otherwise advised.

"If we had 100 good citizens that felt as you do in this matter there could be no such word as 'fail.' I feel there will be no objection on your part to having your letter printed,
and I will do so, thanking you for the ideas you advance and the manner in which you back them."

Contributions to the band fund continue to come in and the members of the committee are pleased with the way in which the people are responding to the appeal to clean up the shortage.

Hand your contributions to Mr.
Burgoyne, Mr. Waite, Mr. Rowe, or leave them at the Daily News office.

DELIGHTFUL DINNER WITH GARNISHING GREENERY.

One of the most delightful dinners
of the season was served in the Clarendon grill room Monday evening,
the event being the climax to a series of progressive functions held during the winter. In honor of the anniversary of the natal day of Ireland's patron saint, the decoration
were emblematic of the Emerald Isle, the most elaborate of which was the center piece for the table. This was a basket prepared entirely from Florida vegetables by the chef of the Clarendon hotel.

Every part of this basket of brilliant colored flowers was composed of Florida vegetables, with the exception of the wooden foundation and the slender bamboo side pieces which supported the artificial bou-quet and forming the outer covering of the basket were strips of turnip,
the wider ones tinged with green on the edges. The exterior of the basket was studded with round, pink radishes while the contents of the basket represented a variety of flowers delicately carved from various kinds of vegetables, most of them representing blossoms in their natural colors and including onions,
beets, turnips, carrots, radishes, etc., intermingled with greenery composed of parsley, celery and cabbage leaves and this was surmounted by the representation of the Irish flag with the harp in lighter green and all alike composed of vegetables grown here and forming a most striking and beautiful floral piece. This basket was not made to be eaten, however, but each course of the dinner carried out the color scheme of the basket, even the drinkables being in colors.

Those who participated were Dr.
and Mrs. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. M.
P. Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. F. J.
Niver, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bohannon,
Mr. and Mrs. Neville H. Clark, Mr.
and Mrs. W. Maxwell Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Waite and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald.

Editorial Daily News:

What, let me say I have not been a taxpayer in Daytona for several years and can not kicking on a tax for a sewer system. I have for many years taken much interest in the matter, however. Much is being said and published about typhoid. This disease does not come from bad sewage unless the water supply is contaminated thereby. The water supply of Daytona is mostly from deep wells from which the surface water is cut off. The hundreds of years of St. Augustine shows no epidemic of typhoid and that city is far more exposed than Daytona, and for forty years Daytona has been exempt. So don't trouble troubles till troubles trouble you.

Rivers are the natural sewers of almost all cities. The Illinois and Mississippi take care of the sewage of over two millions in Chicago. An attempt was made in the courts to show that the water at St. Louis was contaminated by Chicago sewage but failed.

The Mississippi is the sewer of St. Paul and Minneapolis. All that is needed for many years in Daytona is to utilize the river to keep a channel open into which all the sewage of private owners empty their foul contents. It is the much expense to carry all these private sewage out to the main district. But, at small cost, the channel along the west bank can be kept open. A channel was dug almost all the way when the dam was built. This channel is obstructed in a few places. In building the new bridge a channel was left open fortunately.

Now, to increase the efficiency of this river sewer a wing dam will be of much value. Many do not know the extensive use of wing dams. On the upper Mississippi the boat channel has been deepened fifty per cent, mostly by use of wing dams. At the mouth of that river we all know what was accomplished by Eads.

There is a remarkably fine chance to turn almost double the flow of the outgoing tide into this channel by a wing dam of palmetto about piling extending from the west end of the central bridge northeasterly to the line of the boat channel. The cost of this is but little—one or two thousand dollars will clear the channel and put in the wing dam.

There is surely no call for a quarter million dollars debt, more or less, until the means at hand have been utilized. To saddle such a debt on a village the size of Daytona would check its prosperity. To add the interest even of such a debt to all the other debts is too much a burden unless it is really needed, in which case the writer would be the last one to object.

Several years ago the writer suggested this plan, and has talked it over with those who ought to know, and it meets approval. If the writer was an expert and paid a big fee to come to Daytona with this plan I feel sure it would be adopted.

WM. B. REED.

A PLEA FOR BETTER LAWS.

Editorial Daily News:

As a nation we are very prone to boast of "our" greatness and the truly wonderful progress we have made, and are making, in so many ways. We are not at all sparing of self praise, and of comparing ourselves with less favored nations, to our great apparent advantage.

Yet, when we pause to consider, we must acknowledge we do not lead in all that stands for the best interest of our fellow citizens, and that in many ways there is need of improvement in our customs and laws ere we reach the goal for which the founders of our great republic aimed. There are too many criminals, too many of the very poor, too much ignorance, and too much several other things that are the result of ignorance, to have an ideal citizenship.

In a family it is very important that the children should have the best possible surroundings and associations in order to develop a desire for the truest, noblest, highest purposes of life, and that they may have a force strongly urging them forward along the road that leads to true success.

It is shown by statistics that the children of criminals are far more likely to be criminals than those who are brought up under better conditions. The criminal surroundings make them familiar with crime, they are taught that it is to their advantage to become law breakers, and are drilled in how to evade, and escape the penalty of the law. This teaching and the necessary evil associations connected with it, develops an impulse—say, more than an impulse—a power, a force within the individual urging to crime. They become criminals, and continue criminals, because they believe it to be to their advantage to be criminals.

And this applies also to a nation. There has grown up a sentiment that it is all right to do a thing that is unlawful, if it is to one's personal advantage, if the law can in any way be evaded. And laws have been and are being drawn that are, perhaps purposely, so indefinite that they are quite easily evaded. And there has grown up a system of interpretations by the courts which permit almost numberless technicalities and delays, which in many cases finally result in the dismissal of the suit.

This has brought about a condition of affairs the result of which is that there are quite a number of persons who believe—or try to make themselves believe—that it is justifiable to take advantage of those who respect the law, and that it is really laudable shrewdness to plan and arrange to in some way get around the plain intent of the statutes that the honest upright citizen respects. And the worst thing about this is that if some one succeeds in accumulating a fortune in a way forbidden by statute, and is successful in escaping the penalty, that one is by many admired and looked upon as a successful man and worthy of emulation. This helps to break down the respect for the law that is so essential for the prosperity of the nation.

The remedy is to make the laws so plain that they state just what they mean, and then make the penalty heavy enough for the criminal to be afraid of the penalty. And failure of the proper official to prosecute sufficient cause for removal. And when conviction results let the penalty be enforced against all offenders alike.

At the present time the guilty often escape because of some trumped up technicality that is used to throw the case out of court. When conviction rarely results certain ones are tempted to become law breakers, expecting to escape the penalty also. Laws that are not enforced have a potent influence in bringing other laws into contempt.

It is considered dangerous for the peace of a community for the lawless to carry firearms in many states. The statutes of Florida forbid the carrying of firearms except under certain restrictions. This places the honest, peaceable citizens, who respect law, at the mercy of the criminal class who are dangerous and who are the very ones that the law is supposed to guard against. By hook or crook, criminals are able to supply themselves with weapons. And not only is this so but the crook knows that in nearly every case the victim he attacks is defenseless. Once in possession of a weapon the criminal has no trouble in getting ammunition.

Now let a law be passed attaching heavy penalties for a dealer to sell, or in any way assist any person to obtain in any manner any cartridges except to persons showing a license properly issued, and a great deal of the danger of "pistol toting" would be done away with. The ease with which cartridges can be obtained is a constant temptation to some who have a pistol.

Then we have "fish laws." They keep the honest citizen from fishing with certain kinds of nets. But the difficulty of securing convictions, and the (comparatively) large gains are a constant incentive to certain classes to become law breakers. There are many others who feel that it is unjust to prevent an honest man from fishing and permit those who are breaking the laws to make a good thing out of it. The honest citizen decides that laws are not always just, and the unlawful fishers have a growing contempt for all law, and order.

But let a law be passed making conviction easy, and making it unlawful to have certain specified nets in

FOOD VALUE OF CHESTNUTS

Are Rich in Starch and Fat, Better Than Potatoes and Almost as Good as Bread.

In France much attention is given to the propagating of the chestnut, and the fruit is spoken of with enthusiasm and respect. In French literature, especially in stories for children, the chestnut tree is quite as important a feature as the plum tree in the politics of this country, where we speak lightly of the chestnut and then pay at the rate of $5 a bushel for them. The small French chestnut is called the "chataigne," but the large or giant chestnut is the "marron." The marron is cultivated extensively in France and Italy, where it is used in large quantities.

"Every soda fountain menu," says the New York Soda Fountain, a trade journal, "has some reference to marrons, and marrons glace are a favorite after-dinner morsel at all the large hotels, yet few persons realize that while primarily a dessert delicacy, marrons are an exceedingly wholesome and valuable food. It is not generally known that the fruit of the chestnut tree is nearly as valuable as bread and more valuable than potatoes as a food, being rich in starch and fat."

In some districts of Pennsylvania much attention is now given to the planting of chestnut trees. There are several hill counties in Indiana, like Brown, Monroe and Morgan, where the marron and the smaller sized chestnuts could be made a source of profit.

Blunders of Royal Authors.
Royal authors sometimes need a deal of editing. A glaring instance is Frederick the Great, whose spelling and punctuation astounded Carlyle, says the London Chronicle. "A steure" for "a cote heure" was a specimen of the former, and as for punctuation, he never could understand the mystery of it; he merely scatters a few commas and dashes as if they were shaken out of a pepper box upon his page and so leaves it.

How, asks Carlyle, can such slovenliness be explained in a king who "would have ordered arrest for the smallest speck of mud on a man's buff belt, indignant that any pipe clayed portion of a man should not be perfectly pipe clayed?" He can only conclude that Frederick really cared little about literature after all. Also "he never unclad stuff upon his own chin, not even upon his waistcoat and breeches." "I am a king and above grammar," said another monarch.

Woman Given High Position.
In Switzerland a woman has been appointed to the chief inspectorship of factories, a coveted position hitherto held only by men. This appointment is the outcome of a special commission which met to inquire into factory conditions of the various cantons. Owing to the great increase of women in industrial life the desirability of a woman as chief inspector was unanimously agreed upon by the commission.

His Misconception.
A man who was much in need of sleep rolled out of bed during the night. The far did not awake him thoroughly, and his hand wandered in exploration. It encountered the mesh of some protruding springs and a sturdy iron corner post. "In jail at last," he murmured as he passed away.

Many Fish Were Blind.
More than 17,000 yellowtail were caught by Japanese fishermen at the long wharf recently. This is the largest catch for one day's fishing ever recorded in the bay district. Among the funny specimens were several deep sea fish, which, when brought to the surface, were found to be totally blind.—Los Angeles Tribune.

Matrimonial Revival.
A Boston pastor wants the basement of his church turned into a "courtship parlor." Planning a matrimonial revival, as it were.—New York Herald.

one's possession in, or near the fishing grounds, and making it the duty of certain officers to seize such nets, and hold them until the owner proves that they were not being used for unlawful purposes, or shows a license issued by the proper officials showing that the owner has given bonds that such net is not in his possession for an unlawful purpose; and also that nets found in boats or along the shore, or in the river are prima facie evidence that they are used for an unlawful purpose, and directing that when so found by the proper officers they shall destroy them, or seize them. And that persons found in boats or in lakes or rivers, in which it is unlawful at that season to fish, with nets in their possession shall in the eyes of the law be engaged in fishing, and are to be taken into custody by the proper officers and held for trial.

I believe that a law breaker should have a fair show, and a fair trial; but I believe that the peaceable, law-abiding citizens ought to have a fair show too, and if our laws do not give the good citizens a fair show that the laws should be changed until they do give it to them.

STATE HAPPENINGS

J. H. Vanderhaven, postmaster at Tavares, cut his throat from ear to ear with a razor. Physical and mental conditions are ascribed as the cause.

Apalachicola people are rejoicing over the news that has just been received from Washington to the effect that $75,000 for a government building for that city has been included in the appropriation bill.

Entries for the southern championship speed boat events to be held over the Matanzas course during the Ponce de Leon celebration in St. Augustine are now said to be coming in rapidly. The St. Augustine Record says: "From present indications there will be some pretty events and a hard fought contest for the coveted southern championship title."

U. S. Senators Fletcher and Bryan, together with Congressmen Clark and Sparkman have been invited to visit Kissimmee and look into the deepening of the Kissimmee river. Senator Fletcher has already signified his willingness to investigate the needs of this district, and it is expected that all the delegation will go to that city during the next two weeks. Both senators have numerous relatives in the city, and being in Florida at this time, makes it reasonable to assume that they will make the trip.

Extensive preparations are being made to entertain the veterans of the G. A. R. when the state encampment will be held in St. Petersburg April 1 and 2. The city council and the board of trade have joined with the Kit Carson Post, G. A. R., to entertain the visitors while they are in that city. It is expected that 1,500 of the old soldiers will attend the meeting to renew the days of war. The Woman's Relief Corps will have charge of a part of the entertainment and will give a dinner for the veterans.

Frank Vans Agnew, postmaster of Kissimmee, announces that he will make his first 1913 shipment of peaches about the first week in April. This grower has 750 trees which produced over 1,000 crates last year and a conservative estimate for this season's crop is placed at 1,500 crates. Five acres are devoted to peaches which are expected to yield $7,500 or $1,500 an acre. The minimum price received in 1912 was $5.50, while getting the crop started north six weeks earlier this year should increase the price to approximately $10 per crate. Early Bidwells predominate, with the Angel variety following.

In his annual return to the tax collector of Dade county, State Comptroller M. V. Knott has reported seventy homesteads in this county as having had their entries perfected during the year 1912. These homesteads include approximately 10,500 acres of land and will appear on the tax rolls of Dade county for the first time this year, adding a large sum of money to the taxes to be collected. Practically all are between Perrine and Detroit. At the same time the comptroller reported nearly 111,000 acres of state lands sold during 1912 to corporations and individuals. These lands, too, will go on the tax rolls for the first time this year, and will have a taxable valuation of nearly a million dollars.—Miami Metropolis.

BEWARE OF "HAMBURGER STEAK"

That "Hamburger steak" is dangerous as a probable source of ptomaine poisoning, is the warning of Dr. Cutler, Food Commissioner of Missouri. "Don't accept Hamburger steak that you find ready prepared in the butcher shop," said Dr. Cutler, "for it may contain remnants that are badly decayed, and you might as well be poisoned by cyanide of potassium or Prussic acid, as by the ptomaines of decayed meat. See that Hamburger steak is prepared in your presence, and you will then know that it is fit to eat." A surer way to avoid ptomaine poisoning is not to eat Hamburger steak or any other, especially as it has been fully demonstrated that one can live very well without flesh meat of any kind.

Realism in Babylon.
"A great deal of fun has been poked at the realistic school of art," says a New York artist, "and it must be confessed that some ground has been given to the enemy. Why, there recently came to my notice a picture of an Assyrian bath, done by a Chicago man, and so careful was he of all the details that the towels hanging up were all marked 'Nebuchadnezzar' in the corner, in cuneiform characters."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Deceives No One.
"The expectation that you actually can be one thing and appear to be another is doomed to disappointment. Hypocrisy is the saddest fallacy in the world. The disguises of the pretender are so thin that the simplest see through them. What you are speaks so loud as to drown altogether any declarations you may make of what you wish men to think you are. The deceiver deceives no one but himself."—Henry F. Cope.

Still Admired the Ring.
A few days ago Maud, who was a little jealous of Ethel, said: "When you broke your engagement with Jack, of course you returned the diamond ring he gave you?" Ethel answered promptly, "No, and I don't intend to, either. I don't care for Jack any more, but my feelings have not changed toward the ring."—National Monthly.

Hurt of Unkind Words.
Unkind words are sharper than swords. If you cut your finger there is but temporary pain: If your heart is hurt with sarcasm or brutal speech the suffering continues as long as your memory is working. Since we all know the agony of injured feelings it certainly behooves all of us to be sparing with stinging conversation. As one grows wiser and older one pays little heed to what others say. Unkind things then apparently don't have the power to hurt. The older, wiser ones just twirl their thumbs and smile. It is a great relief when one gets to that point of perfect tranquillity.

Scotch Alarm Clock.
A tourist in rural Scotland took refuge for the night in the cottage of an old lady. He asked her to wake him up early in the morning, warning her that he was quite deaf. Upon awakening much later than the appointed hour he found that the old lady, with strict regard for the proprieties, had slipped under the door a slip of paper upon which was written: "Sir, it's half past eight."

Ray-Killed Bacteria.
A method for sterilizing milk without heating or adding preservatives is claimed to have been effectively demonstrated recently in Holland. An apparatus has been constructed. It is explained, whereby the milk flows in a thin stream along an electric light, the ultra-violet beams working on the bacteria. The result is attributed to the quality of the ozone formed under the influence of the light.—The Argonaut.

Heredity.
Some very pretty things are being said, for no special reason whatever, about genealogy and heredity. Naturally this is associated with the names and life of what is called the "nobility." Yet no commentator has quoted the couplet of Pope, which reads lavishly that "His ancient but ignoble blood has crept through scoundrels ever since the flood."

Before Houses Were Numbered.
Four hundred years ago the idea of numbering houses originated in Paris, though it was not until 1789 that the system became general. The first known instance of a London street in which houses were numbered is Prescott street, but the practice did not spread far until 1764.

Our Touch of Vanity.
Our companions please us less from the charms we find in their conversation than from those they find in ours.—Greville.

NEW TALES THAT ARE TOLD

A Business Man's Queer Visitor.

George Fitch, the humorist, who is editing a paper in Peoria, Ill., tells a true story about Peoria that is interesting in view of the recent boom in land values throughout the country. According to Fitch, a certain man named W. S. D. once upon a time took some Illinois land on a bad debt. He never visited his property, and after he had paid taxes on it for several years he had an offer for it which he accepted on the spot. The deeds were scarcely signed when he found that a city, Peoria, was growing up on that land. He was naturally annoyed, but

"WHAT CAN I DO FOR YOU?" ASKED THE BUSINESS MAN.

several years later his annoyance was tinged with amusement. A stranger came into his office one day.

"What can I do for you?" asked the business man affably.
"Are you W. S. D.?"
"Yes, sir."
The man sat down and continued:
"Did you own the site of the city of Peoria?"
"Yes."
"Did you sell it for $800?"
"I did."

The stranger looked at him fully a minute. He appeared to be about to speak, but he said nothing. He got up, looked W. S. D. over again from head to foot and then tiptoed softly out of the room.—Country Gentleman.

FABLE FOR BENEFIT OF ADVERTISERS.

Simeon Ford Points a Moral With the Tale of a Goose.

Simeon Ford, the noted humorist, said in praise of newspaper advertising at a banquet in New York:

"There is a fable that all advertisers should have by heart. It runs like this: 'As a shopkeeper dozed, his head on the dusty counter of his shop, the gray cobwebs across his door were rent apart, and a goose entered.'

"The shopkeeper rose with a glad smile. He thought he had a customer, but when he saw the goose he muttered an oath.

"What do you want here?' he said. 'This is no place for geese.' 'Isn't it?' said the goose. 'Quack, quack!' And it regarded the shopkeeper derisively, then went on: 'I've come, my dear sir, because I saw your advertisement on the fence that incloses your barnyard. I knew that you must be a goose or else a donkey, because otherwise you would place your advertisement in a newspaper, where it would be read by human beings, and not upon an isolated fence, where it is only read by donkeys and geese and other barnyard denizens. So, being lonely today, I thought I'd make you a fraternal call. A couple of donks will probably drop in later.'

Wild Oats and Porridge.
Professor Zephaniah Hopper, hale and vigorous at eighty-eight, said at the Philadelphia high school:

"My advice to the young is that they sow no wild oats. Wild oats in youth means an old age sad and decrepit. And yet the way some people talk you'd think that wild oats were as essential a part of youth as domesticated oats are of Scotland."

Professor Hopper smiled and added: "A friend of mine in Scotland said to a boy:

"What do you have for breakfast hereabouts?"
"Porridge," was the answer.

"And for dinner?"
"Porridge."

"And for supper?"
"Porridge."

"Goodness!" said my friend. 'Porridge every day for every meal! Do you never have anything else?'

"What else would you have?" said the boy.—Washington Star.

Tusla, Okla., came to this city last Saturday afternoon from Pensacola, where they have been spending the season, and are guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Michael at their home, 371 North Ridgewood avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Michael and Mrs. Lydecker are friends of many years standing.

W. W. Bennett of Arch Creek was a pleasant visitor at the Daily News
and Gazette-News office this morning in company with his cousin, G.
C. Bennett of Ormond. Mr. Bennett is engaged in the tomato business at Arch Creek and has just completed the marketing of his crop, his location being among the earliest.
The results this season have been very satisfactory with Mr. Bennett, who is here for a few days to conclude the purchase of a piece of farming land on West Second avenue. Mr. Bennett expects to return to this city in a few weeks time to spend the summer and while here will erect a residence and otherwise improve his place on Second avenue.

S. C. Brown died in the early hours of Monday morning, aged 85
years, at his winter home in Sea-

SOUTHERN DANCING REVEL
BY HONEY BOY MINSTRELS.

An elaborate southern dancing revel is one of the best features of the entirely new show offered this year by George Evans' "Honey Boy" minstrel, who, headed by that past-
master in the art of minstrelsy, Evans, himself, comes to the New Daytona theater tomorrow night.

"Seminary Days" are the titular words designating on the program
this pleasing singing and dancing divertisement from the brilliant pen of James E. Gorman, the stage manager for all Cohan and Harris productions. It is a beautiful scenic setting showing a moonlight picture of the grounds and buildings of a girls' seminary in the southland.

John King, the inimitable wench de-lineator, as the dean of the institution, is the foil for all the hilarious fun that permeates the creation. Embarrassing predicaments for the pseudo female crop out from the beginning to the end of the skit, as a result of the tricks played on him by the pestiferous dorkies. Sam Lee, in the role of ground keeper of the seminary, vies with King in keeping the fun moving at an accelerated speed. Clever terpsichorean exhibitions by the contingent of graceful dancers and an eccentric dance by Raymond Maxson are other features.
"The Boys We Love" and "When The Old Town Clock Strikes Nine,"
both written by the inimitable
"Honey Boy" are the song hits of this part.

CORPORATIONS CHARGED WITH DODGING TAXES.

RICHMOND, March 18 — Formal action was taken by the state today against the Armour company and the Standard Oil company for making alleged false returns and tax dodging. The hearing is set for next month.

Worried Hero.
A critic of Wells' novel, "Marriage," finds in the confounding of the hero
"the desire to have it all ways; to possess a woman who shall have all the charm and the caprice of the eternal feminine; who shall, by the grossness of her desires and the pettiness of conversation, give him an agreeable sense of superiority, and yet shall, to order, acquire deep spiritual insight
when her husband feels he needs it."

"DO YOU GET ME STEVE?"

Lot 50x100, well located, South Palmetto, for $1,000. Would be cheap at $1,350, so the joke is on Mr. Owner, if you buy quick, while he needs the money.

BRYAN URGES ELECTION OF
TWO SENATORS IN ILLINOIS
DECLARES HE DOESN'T REPRE-SENT PRESIDENT NOR HIM-SELF BUT TELLS DEMOCRATS
WHAT TO DO.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18 — William Bryan, although asserting that he did not represent the president nor himself in an official capacity, urged the legislature in joint session today to elect two democratic senators. He virtually "read out of the party" those who are not supporting the party nominee.

DIXIE FLYER DITCHED
ONE WOMAN IS INJURED.

MACON, Ga., March 18 — Three sleepers and one coach in the Dixie Flyer, the fast train from Chicago to Jacksonville, were derailed 23 miles below here early this morning. No persons were killed, but one elderly woman was injured.

COTTON CENSUS REPORT
ISSUED BY GOVERNMENT.

WASHINGTON, March 18 — The government census cotton report issued today shows 466,933 bales consumed during February. Bales now held by manufacturers, 1,957,543; in independent warehouses, 2,252,011 bales.

S. C. Baird of Jacksonville, Florida
passenger agent of the Illinois Central railroad, was a business visitor in Daytona Monday.

REBELS AND FEDERALS ARE FIGHTING ACROSS THE

REBELS ENCAMPED ON THE HILLS REINFORCED DURING
THE NIGHT AND OPEN
BARDMENT TODAY.

LAREDO, Tex., March 18 — The insurgents are camped on the hills south of Nuevo Laredo and opened fire on the town early today. The band was reinforced during the night.
The federals strengthened the defense of the city during the night.

SHOWING MOUTH HYGIENE.

The moving picture film illustrating and exploiting oral or mouth hygiene, mention of which was made a short time ago in the Daily News, will be exhibited in the New Daytona theater the afternoon of Saturday, March 29. This remarkable and interesting picture depicted by a film 1,000 feet or more in length, is full of instruction for both old and young.
The matinee is especially for young people and the school children of this city, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach, Kingston, Ormond, Holly
Hill, Blake, Port Orange and all other schools within reach are invited and urged to be present. There will be no charge for children either in the afternoon or evening, but a nominal charge for admission will be made for adults in the evening show to assist in paying the expenses of bringing the film to Daytona.
